“Zechariah”

Eight Visions Of Magnificent Hope For The Messiah’s People

---

I. Introduction, Zech 1.1-6

II. Restoration and Glory Revealed Through Eight Visions, Zech 1.7—6.15

A. The Vision of the Horses, Zech 1.7-17

The meaning of the colors of the horses in the present vision (v. 8) may not be clear, but because the interpretation offers no explanation, it is clearly not important.

Eugene H. Merrill, An Exegetical Commentary - Haggai, Zechariah, Malachi; Minor Prophets Exegetical Commentary Series: Haggai, Zechariah, Malachi (Biblical Studies Press, 2003; 2003), 94.

B. The Vision of the Horns, Zech 1.18-21

C. The Vision of the Surveyor, Zech 2.1-13

D. The Vision of the Priest, Zech 3.1-10

It's worth noting that Satan always brings his charges before the Lord (YHWH), not against lesser persons. It is always the Lord (YHWH) who rebukes Satan, not even Michael the archangel rebukes Satan (Jude 9)! Unfortunately there are those who believe they have the power to rebuke Satan when they should be turning to the Lord for His protection and not presumptuously overstepping their position.

E. The Vision of the Menorah, Zech 4.1-14

F. The Vision of the Scroll, Zech 5.1-4

G. The Vision of the Ephah, Zech 5.5-11

H. The Vision of the Chariots, Zech 6.1-8

I. Concluding Oracle, Zech 6.9-15
